HOW TO KEEP YOUR CLOTHES LIKE NEW

LADIES' or gentlemen's garments can be kept in beautiful condition until worn out—by taking frequent advantage of our dry cleaning and pressing service.
Our dry cleaning process removes the soil and stains from your clothing, freshens up the fabric, brightens the colors and raises the nap like new. It does not affect the life or color of even the most delicate or delicate garments.
Every garment or article is handled in each part of the process by skillful, careful workers. We use the famous French Dry Cleaning process of cleaning by spirits and solvents, and etc.

You should send your garments to us, and take advantage of this service. No article of men or women's wear is too dainty for us to dry clean and finish satisfactorily—and our charges are not high.
Our pressing service takes out the wrinkles, creases and other marks of wear. It gives the garments a new life and shine. It removes all the business in the knees and elbows, and a thoroughly up-to-date equipment.

SUB-HIGH TEAMS PLAY THE GAME
The football game between the 13 A and 1 B teams of the Sub-High School at the Fair Grounds yesterday afternoon resulted in a tie, the score being 5 to 5. The game was replete with brilliant and sensational plays. About fifty students witnessed the contest.

Filberg made a ninety-yard run and scored the touchdown for the 13 A team, William Giamann, Jr., scored the touchdown for the opposing team. Pearson of the 13 A team made the sensational play of the game. Securing the ball, he carried it from the five-yard line of the 13 A goal. Three seconds after the down was made time was called at the end of the second half. A few seconds more would have meant victory for the 13 A's.

Ruby, left halfback on the 1 B team, was the star player of the game. The line up was as follows:

Elder, F. B. .... F. B. Hyberk

OLD FOLKS ENJOY ORPHEUM SHOW

Between five and six hundred of old folks of Weber county and their attendants enjoyed the hospitality of Manager J. F. Goss at the Orpheum matinee yesterday afternoon. An excellent bill had been prepared for their entertainment and they certainly enjoyed themselves. By two o'clock the old folks could be seen coming from all directions, alighting from buggies, wagons and street cars, wearing their badges of red, blue and white, indicating their ages as 70, 80, 90 or over. So far as practicable, those over 80 and 90 were seated in the boxes.

After the opening overture by the orchestra at 2:15 p. m. Bishop James Taylor, of the Ogden Tenth ward, gave an address of welcome to the old folks. During the course of his remarks he heartily endorsed the Orpheum offerings as a clean, wholesome means of entertainment and recommended that fathers and mothers might send their children to the performances without fear of any degrading effect whatever. He speaker of the old folks, also thanked the Orpheum management for the hospitality which had been extended.

A large number of those in attendance had never before witnessed a performance at the Orpheum and not a few sat in a theater for the first time in their lives. The oldest person in attendance was a lady who was nearing the century mark in life's pathway. Her name could not be learned.

It was an enjoyable afternoon for the veterans who
